STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY

Almighty Father,

we thank you for all the gifts you have given us:

our lives, our loved ones, in short all that we are and all that we have.

Most of all, we thank you for Jesus,

Your Son and our Redeemer,

who came among us to show us the way to eternal life.

Jesus was the perfect steward of your gifts, showing us that complete trust in you is necessary and that giving of self is a most important part of following Him.

Please help us to grow in your love and in the strength to give of ourselves to others so that we may follow your Son's example and help all people to complete His mission of Salvation.

Pray our offering of time, talent and treasure be made in the same spirit of sacrifice that Jesus taught us by His life and death for us.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son and Our Lord. Amen.

Welcome to St Thomas' Cathedral for this service

We are the mother church of the Diocese of Bombay in the Church of North India, a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion. Christian worship has been offered to God here for over 300 years. By worshipping with us today, you become part of that living tradition.

The basis for our worship is the Book of Common Prayer, our common liturgical heritage with Anglicans across the world (all churches descended from the Church of England). We are rooted in tradition but celebrate the richness and diversity of the Communion. Music and hymnody represent the best of the Anglican choral tradition.

The Gathering

Voluntary

Prelude, Op. 101 No. 4 ... .. Charles Villiers Stanford, 1852 - 1924

Welcome

All keep silence and prepare for worship.

Introit

Sung by the choir

O love that will not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in Thee;
I give Thee back the life I owe,
That in Thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.

O Cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from Thee.;
I lay in dust, life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red,
Life that shall endless be.

Albert Peace (1844 - 1912)

Gracious God,
we thank you for your self-spending love
you have manifested in and through your Son Jesus our Lord,
who became poor so that we might become rich;
became empty that we might be whole;
gave himself up to die in order that we might live.
Grant us courage to follow the footsteps of Christ
in giving without counting the cost,
through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and ever.

Psalm

119:121 - 128

Sung by the choir to a chant by Greene

Feci iudicium

I deal with the thing that is lawful and right : O give me not over unto mine oppressors.

<sup>122</sup> Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good : that the proud do me no wrong.

<sup>123</sup> Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health : and for the word of thy righteousness.

<sup>124</sup> O deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy : and teach me thy statutes.

<sup>125</sup> I am thy servant, O grant me understanding : that I may know thy testimonies.

<sup>126</sup> It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand : for they have destroyed thy law.

<sup>128</sup> Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments : and all false ways I utterly abhor.

All stand            Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
                                 And to the Holy Ghost;
                                 As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:

The Gospel of Christ

St. Matthew 25:14 - 30

Alleluia, alleluia, alleuia.

Blessed are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleuia.

The Gospeller    The Lord be with you.

All                    And with thy spirit.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

“Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bageach according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.’

“His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’

“The man with two bags of gold also came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with two bags of gold; see, I have gained two more.’

“Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’

“His master replied, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed?

Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

“So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

At the end of the Gospel:

The Gospeller      This is the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

All                      Praise be to thee, O Christ.

All sing                Take my silver and my gold;
not a mite would I withhold;
take my intellect, and use

Sermon

The Reverend Avinash Rangayya

Dedication of Members of the Pastorate Committee

The Presbyter says

We have come together, in the presence of Almighty God, for the dedication of the members of our Pastorate Committee for this year. They are our chosen leaders and servants in the life and mission of this congregation. In the Church of North India, certain laymen and laywomen are chosen to share with the bishops, presbyters and deacons in the spiritual care, nurture and administration of the Church. As members of the Pastorate Committee you are called to share in these responsibilities. Remember that all effective service in the Church must be in the Spirit of him who came not to be served but to serve.

Do you promise to carry out your responsibilities in co-operation with the presbyter and the other members of the Committee?

I do, with God's help.

Will you at all times set before you the unity and peace of this Pastorate, trying to be an example to the congregation in humility, in sincerity of life and in Christian service?

I will, with God's help.

Since the Church is called to share in fulfilling God's purpose for the world, will you with the Presbyter and your fellow-members try to care for the needs of your neighbours?

Will you both inspire and lead the people of the Pastorate in witness to Christ and in service to those within the Church and outside it?

I will, with God's help.

Will you endeavour always to speak and act as responsible members of the Church of North India and of this Diocese?

And by your commitment to the cause of unity, witness and service, will you encourage others also to follow your example?

I will, with God's help.

May God strengthen you by his Holy Spirit that you may be able to carry out the promises which you have made.

The members of the Pastorate Committee all say together

Living Lord,

we thank you for the joy of being called to your service

in the fellowship of your Church.

Help us to respond to your call,

to commit ourselves to you as our Saviour and King,

to be obedient to your will,

and to serve you faithfully,

for the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

*The members of the Pastorate Committee face the congregation, who stand.
The Presbyter and congregation say to the Committee*

We welcome you with joy
as the members of our Pastorate Committee,
and recognize you during your term of office
as leaders and servants in the life and mission of this Pastorate.
